UCM.ONE GmbH is a German film and music distribution and licencing company based in Berlin, Hamburg, Mannheim and London. It was established with an initial focus on the music market, where the founders have longstanding expertise, and soon widened the scope to film distribution for cinema and home entertainment. Having our roots in the music industry, we decided to take the music label idea to the movie world, establishing different distribution labels for different kinds of films.

We now run seven main film labels and several sublabels on which we publish feature films, documentaries, medium-length films and short films as well as series, for example:

Artkeim² stands for very special films that defy genre boundaries, excel in style and give the viewers a lot of food for thought.

With Darling Berlin we focus on independent films from the German capital where a young generation of directors and actors are producing movies that breathe the spirit of the city.

On NONFY Documentaries we publish films with a fresh outlook that can change the viewers' perspective by addressing relevant topics and immersing them in worlds they haven't experienced before.

Since summer 2023, we have also opened up our world sales and digital global distribution activities to friends, acquaintances and competitors.

When the Libyan coastguard approaches the German sea rescue boat Eleonore, hecticness breaks out among the 104 refugees and the routine rescue operation has to be accelerated.

The real-time documentary ONE HUNDRED FOUR brings this dramatic situation closer. The film shows how agonizingly long it takes to rescue 104 people from a sinking rubber dinghy. Person by person, step by step, the action is accompanied by several parallel cameras.

With the appearance of the Libyan coast guard, the situation comes to a head. The rescued people and the crew wait for days on the high seas, as no Mediterranean country allows them to dock. Only after a terrible storm does the ship reach a European port.

DARLINGS

ORIGINAL TITLE: DARLINGS • DIR: LEA DE BOOR & STEFFEN MAURER
FEATURE FILM • THRILLER • GERMANY 2023 • 76 MIN • SUBTITLES: EN

Lena (27), an open-minded primary school teacher from Berlin, accompanies her boyfriend Ole (29) to the village where he spent his childhood and youth. But what initially feels like a relaxing break away from the noise of everyday life in the city soon puts their relationship to the test...

DARLINGS is a mixture of thriller and drama and deals with hidden power mechanisms between men and women and escalating violence in love relationships. Therefore, there is no clear antagonist, but rather an ominous mood – an all-encompassing unease that emanates from both the atmosphere in the village and Ole's need for control.

The film raises many questions that everyone knows from their own relationships: What compromises do we make? What does the future together look like and when is it better to just let go?

Summer in Berlin. Sophie (15) and Dominik (17) have been living on the streets around Görlitzer Park for six months. They sleep in doorways, collect bottles - and love each other as unconditionally and absolutely as teenagers do. If they are separated for even a moment, disaster strikes. Sophie has been reported as „missing“ by her father - so they have no chance of getting any help from the state. They sell postcards, collect bottles and „scrounge“ a few cents. They live an insecure, dangerous but free life in the midst of society and yet beyond it. In October, Sophie is four months pregnant and winter is on its way. At the same time, a court date looms: Dominik has to answer for several crimes committed in recent years. He is facing years in prison.

A friend, who is also homeless, suggests they flee to France. Maybe they could start a new life there? But can you run away with a child in your womb? Dominik decides to contact the authorities and face up to his past. The court hearing turns out to be an opportunity to return to legality. A few weeks later, the two have a small apartment about 70 km from Berlin - in the middle of the forest. What had long been the goal of their longing now often turns out to be a horror. An agonizing boredom descends on them. Is this the price they have to pay for a reasonably secure life? In May, their son Luca is born. Dominik has invested the money for the initial equipment in hard drugs – and so the collapse of their fragile order is not long in coming.

SUBTITLES: EN

They were best friends when life-hungry director Maria (Bibiana Beglau), young actress Laura (Gina Henkel) and DJ Jan (Alexander Fehling) were shaking up Berlin's artistic and nightlife scene. Now, after years of radio silence, the three meet again on a shared farm in the Black Forest, where Laura and Jan have retreated from their stagnant careers to pursue their dream of country life.

Ten years ago, he cheated on Maria with Laura, after which the two became a couple. The reunion and Kathi's fate cause the storm that rages through the lives of the three women to grow into an existential threat.

They hold up a mirror to each other relentlessly until the masks fall and it becomes clear: Maria still has a score to settle with her friends.

KISS MY WOUNDS is a tragic-comic film about shattered dreams, painful love, loneliness and hidden longings, about techno, art, existential fears and growing old - and not least about the healing power of deep friendship.

FORCES

ORIGINAL TITLE: GEWALTEN • DIR: CONSTANTIN HATZ

FEATURE FILM • DRAMA • GERMANY 2022 • 147 MIN • SUBTITLES: EN

In an isolated village, beyond temporal and geographical localisation, lives 14-year-old Daniel. The life of this gentle and tolerant boy, who only wants to please everyone, is marked by violence and emotional coldness. He sacrifices himself for his family, tries to please his violent big brother and devotedly cares for his terminally ill father, who longs for his own end but does not dare to end his life himself. In the forest, Daniel meets Marcel, an outcast who has returned to the village after many years and ekes out a living by fighting dogs. The two are united by their receptivity to the comforting silence of the forest and an intense relationship with nature.

With a stoic expression, Daniel endures his disappointed hopes as well as the humiliations of his emotionally stunted fellow human beings, as if he wants to avoid becoming just like them until the end – even if that means surrendering to raw nature in the end.

YOUTH TOPIA

ORIGINAL TITLE: YOUTH TOPIA • DIR: DENNIS STORMER

FEATURE FILM • COMEDY • GERMANY 2021 • 85 MIN • SUBTITLES: EN

What do a bad-ass woman, a would-be shaman, a sensitive babyface, a forty-year-old conspiracy theorist and a deceitful party girl have in common? They are all good-for-nothings, who have come together to defy the social trend of self-realization.

Day in, day out, Wanja, Greta, Sören, Maul, and Leona fill their social media with antisocial content. In this way, they prevent the omnipresent algorithm from calculating their dream job. The only plan they have is to hang out as so-called long-term teenagers, surrounded by successful adults. Wanja is known for overstepping the mark; everyone is therefore amazed when the algorithm, out of the blue, offers her a dream job in an architecture firm. Now she thinks particularly highly of herself, believing she can have both a glittering career — with all the privileges of the adult world — and a dopamine-rich party life in the arms of her crazy best friends. Contributing, being praised, and being the overachiever in the office feel unexpectedly good. Wanja accepts the facts that drugs are less fun now that they are consumed legally, and that she can't sleep at night because she feels lonely. She dutifully climbs the career ladder and only hesitates when the next step involves the ultimate betrayal of her friends. That's when the young adult begins to understand that the screwball adolescents are still better off than the adults, because they are preserving a rare commodity: community. Wanja does everything in her power to safeguard this community and is willing to revert to being a Youngster to do so.
